

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

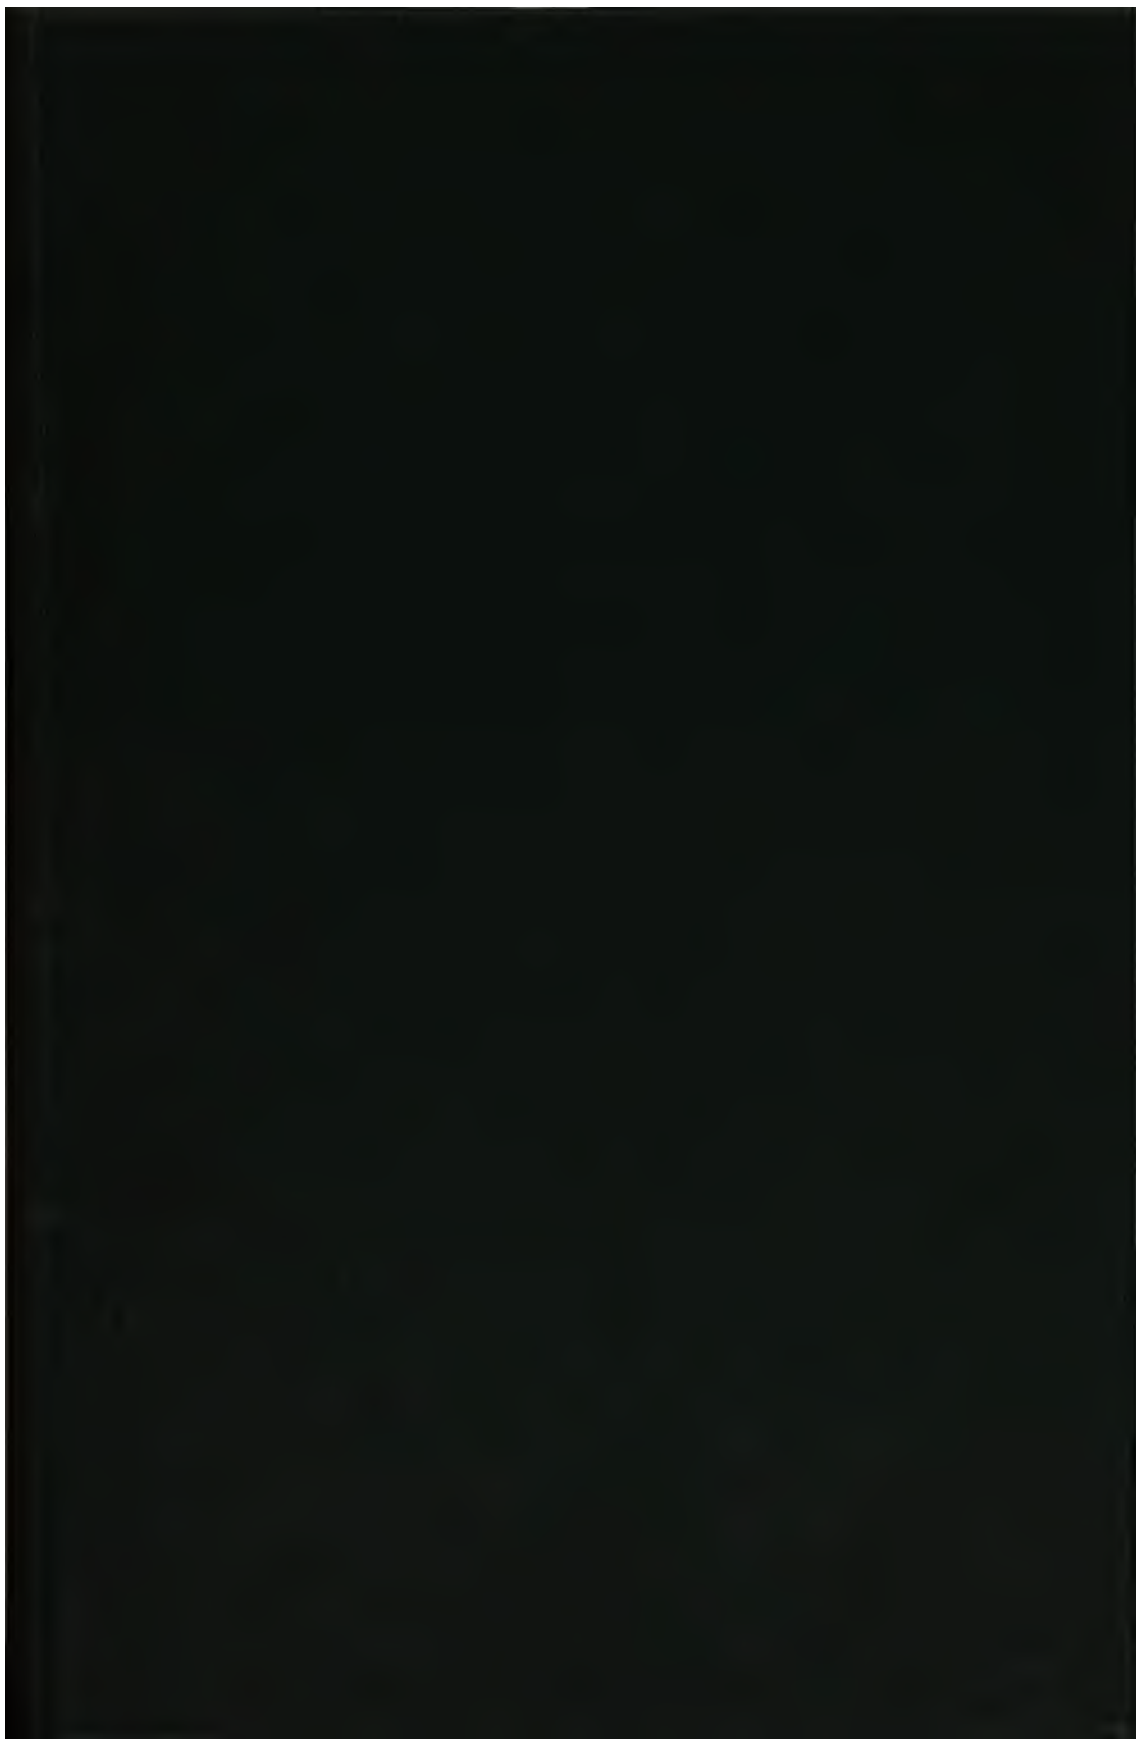

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Registers of Hamstall Ridware.

Contents :

As the entries in the Parish Register of Hampstall Ridware are not always entered in chronological order, and the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials are mixed in many parts of the register without any order in arrangement, it seems convenient to prefix a classified table of contents.

HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY
TREAT FUND
Apr 12, 1927

THE Council has the pleasure of placing in the hands of Members the fifth instalment of Staffordshire Parish Registers for the present year consisting of portions of the following :—

Parish.	Deanery.
Alstonfield (Part IV.)	Alstonfield
Milwich	Rugeley
Hamstall Ridware	Stafford

It is intended that the Parishes of each Deanery shall be bound up together. Every Register will, however, be separately paginated so that Members may adopt any other more convenient method of arrangement.

The present issue is in respect of the Subscriptions for 1904. A further instalment of Registers will be issued in December.

Subscriptions for 1904 should now be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Staffordshire Parish Register Society, Lloyds Bank, Stafford.

Indexing.—The Council will be very pleased to receive offers of help in indexing the various Registers. The work is not difficult and can be completed in leisure time. Offers of help may be sent to the Editor. Assistance in this way will enable us to issue a larger amount of Registers than would be otherwise possible, as the expense of indexing is always considerable.

Transcription.—The work of the Society would be very greatly hastened if a few Members would undertake to transcribe the Registers in their respective districts. Those who have had no experience of antient handwriting might undertake to do the modern period, i.e., from 1754 to 1812.

A pamphlet containing full instructions, together with some specimen alphabets of old register handwriting, has been prepared which Mr. Phillimore will send to any Member who proposes to help in the work of transcription.

Binding.—Cases for binding the Registers in Deaneries will be supplied on the completion of each. The price will be 1s. 6d. each nett., by post 1s. 9d.

Hamstall Ridware.

THREE parishes are known by the name of Ridware (from rhyd-river and ware-people, river people); namely:—

Hamstall (home-stead), Mavesyn and Pipe (Parva or Media).

Hamstall is a Rectory in the deanery of Rugeley. It includes Nethertown, Rowley and Cowley Hill. The river Blythe runs through the parish and falls into the Trent.

The church is dedicated to S. Michael, and consists of tower and spire, nave, two aisles, porch, chancel, two chapels and clerestory.

It is a treasure-house of ecclesiastical antiquities.

Norman work may be traced over the belfry arch and in the walls of the nave; the chancel is Decorated; the clerestory, aisles, upper tower and spire are Perpendicular.

There was a rood loft and staircase, and a so called "Leper's Window," which was possibly a Hagioscope or a Lychnoscope.

There are oak screens of various dates—Decorated, Perpendicular, Renaissance—with wooden pannels with paintings of the Life of Christ, probably dating from the time of Chaucer—the end of the 14th century—to judge from the party coloured costumes, and the pointed shoes.

A hole of quatrefoil shape appears to have been the aperture of a confessional. There is a curious secret lock on the vestry door, and a chain to fasten the Bible to the press. An ancient chalice and paten were dug up near the church.

The Bells are four.

- 1.—"Ave Maria" and a figure of the Virgin, and a Cross.
- 2.—"Syr Thomas Finarbor Knight—God presarve him in all right," and the initials H.O. (Henry Oldfield, of Nottingham).
- 3.—"Glory be to God on high. John Twamlow and William Maskery, Wardens, 1636," and names of the founders, Edward Hall and Hugh Betley.
- 4.—Arms of Leigh, quartering Egerton, "Ex dono Thomæ Leigh, eq. aur., Anno D. 1657," now recast.

There are some fragments of XIV Century glass, formerly in the east window. Az. an Eagle displayed arg., the arms of de Ridware adopted by Cotton; the arms of Fitzherbert, Arg. a chief vary and or and gu. over all a bend sa. The Arms of Leigh. Az. a cross engrailed arg. Also an Abbess with princess' crown and a closed crozier, and a figure with a glory bearing on the fringe of her robe an inscription.

STAFF.—IV.

In the N. aisle are windows of the date of Henry VIII by the same artist as the windows in the apse at Barton under Needwood.

The letters "I.B." are seen on the blade of a saw held by St. Simon at Hamstall, and on a blade held by St. James the Less at Barton, and are presumably the artist's signature.

The monuments consist of an alabaster stone, now partly on the floor partly in the vestry, showing a head on a cushion, a book and part of an inscription "Herbert (or Hubert or Robert) de R. (idware) Salutis MC quater et Octo Mensis Septembris."

A mural brass to Jone wife of Richard Cotton "sometyme heire of this lordshippe and daughter of Sir Willyam Brereton knyght." Arms; an eagle displayed impaling az. two bars arg.

An altar tomb on which the name of Cotton is not found, but containing on the sides shields and inscriptions describing the 15 children of John Cotton and Joanna his wife the daughter of Nicholas Fitzherbert, of Norbury, namely: Arms of Cotton impaling, Arg. a fess gu. and label in chief.

- 1.—"John mar. Alice daur. and heyr of Rich. Langham, of Langham, co. Suffolk."
- 2.—Arms of Cotton impaling the figure of a priest. Thomas, "bachelor of divinitie and the firste Englishman that ever was Frere observant in Englande and died at Richmond."
- 3.—"died at London at the age of xx yere, clerk to Mr. John Clerke the king's auditor."
- 4.—"William died here in this parish at the age of vi yeres."
- 5.—"Roger citizen and vintner of London mar. Anne the daughter of John Roose of Plimouth."
- 6.—"Water bachelor of law and some tyme parson of this towne."
- 7.—"Richard mar. Jahne one of the daughters and heires to Thomas St. John of Charyng in Kent and Alis daughter to Gilbert Savage." Arms Cotton, impaling, Arg. a pale lozengy arg. and sa., on a chief indented gu., two mullets arg.
- 8.—"Edward died servant to Richard Fox bishop of Winchester" (who died 1528.)
- 9.—"Elizabeth mar. John Sedley of Southflete Kent and auditor to the king in his eschequer." Arms, Sedley impaling Cotton.
- 10.—"Elizabeth died unmarried."
- 11.—"Margaret mar. Richard Belgrave of Belgrave in the counte of Leisestur."
- 12.—"Jahne mar. Tho. Yonge of Plimouth and citizen and vintner of London." Arms, A man's hand boring a barrel between 3 tankards impaling Cotton.
- 13.—"Isabel professed nune in the abbey of Barkyng nye London" (she in her nun's dress and with her arms).
- 14.—"Katerin 1st mar. Th. Powtrel of Hato and 2nd Tho. Molyneux of Hanton." Arms, in upper part of shield, Ar., a fess between 3 cinquefoils gu. (Powtrel), in the lower part, Az. a cross moline arg., Molineux; impaling, Az. a spread eagle arg., Cotton.
- 15.—"James died in his cradle."

In Domesday Book; "Ipse Comes Rogerius tenet Ridware et Walterus de eo. Edmundus tenuit et liber homo fuit."

The Manor was held by the de Ridware family from the time of Henry I. to Edward III. It passed by an heiress to the Cottons of Cheshire and from them, temp: Henry VIII by an heiress, to Sir Anthony Fitzherbert the judge. His son Anthony in 1601 conveyed it to Sir Thomas Leigh, who resided here. It has since remained in the Leigh family. There are extensive remains of the manor house with gateway and watchtower.

The Abbey of St. Rémy at Rheinis held a ville here, probably at Nether-town. In Domesday is this entry. "Terra Sancti Remigii—Offelaw Hundred. Ipsa Ecclesia tenet in Ridware i Virgatam terræ. Terra est i Carucata. Godric tenet de ecclesia. Ibi habet dimidiam carucata et ii villani [habent] dimidiam. Ibi molendinum ii solidis et ii acræ prati. Valet v solidos. Has duas terras [i.e., Ridware and Mepford now Meaford] dedit Comes Algar Sancto Remigio."

Why did the Saxon Earl Algar give English lands to the French Abbey? In 1601 Aldred Archbishop of York took with him on a mission to Rome Burchard the son of Algar. As they returned the youth fell sick at Rheims and asked to be buried in the Abbey of St. Rémy, promising in return certain vills of his inheritance; and Algar carried out his son's desire. The priory of Lapley near Penkridge was a cell of St. Rémy and asserted rights over the manor of Ridware.

THE Staffordshire Parish Register Society was founded in 1901, for the purpose of printing and indexing all the Registers of the County prior to the year 1812. The Annual Subscription is One Guinea.

Subscriptions.—All unpaid subscriptions should be at once paid into the account of the Society, at Lloyds Bank, Ltd., at Stafford.

Indexing.—It is proposed to supply Indexes to the various volumes. The preparation of these Indexes is a very expensive item and the Council would therefore be glad if some Members would volunteer to index one or more parishes. The work is not difficult, and can be completed in leisure moments. The Editor would be pleased to hear from Members, and would give all necessary instructions and information. Volunteer work will allow us to issue a larger amount than we could otherwise do.

Transcription.—The work of the Society would be greatly advanced if a few Members would undertake to transcribe the Registers in their respective districts. Those who have no experience in reading the older handwriting might help in the period 1754 to 1812. The Secretary would be glad to hear from any willing to help and will be glad to supply to anyone who may be inclined to help "Suggestions for Transcription" with specimen alphabets of the old handwritings. It is work which ladies might easily undertake.

Cases for Binding.—Cases for binding Volumes will be obtainable so soon as the volumes are completed. Due notification of this will be given to members.

 The progress of completing Staffordshire Parish Registers would be materially hastened if landowners and others having an interest in any particular parish would undertake to raise a special fund towards the register. In the neighbouring County of Salop, many registers have been printed wholly or in part at the cost of private Donors, by whose generosity the very needful work of preserving the contents of our ancient registers has been hastened in a very remarkable manner. The Secretary of the Staffordshire Parish Register Society will be glad to hear from anyone who may be willing to aid in this way, and will be pleased to submit estimate of the cost of printing any particular register in which an intending donor may be interested. 5

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every receipt and invoice should be properly filed and indexed for easy retrieval. This is particularly crucial for businesses that deal with a large volume of transactions, as it helps in identifying discrepancies and ensuring compliance with tax regulations.

Next, the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze financial data. This includes the use of spreadsheets, databases, and specialized software. The author notes that while manual data entry was once the norm, the advent of automation has significantly reduced the risk of human error and increased the efficiency of the process. However, it also stresses the need for regular audits to verify the accuracy of the automated systems.

The third section focuses on the role of internal controls in preventing fraud and mismanagement. It describes how a robust system of checks and balances can be implemented to ensure that all financial activities are properly authorized and documented. This involves separating duties, requiring multiple approvals for significant transactions, and conducting regular internal audits.

Finally, the document concludes by highlighting the importance of transparency and communication in financial reporting. It argues that stakeholders, including investors and creditors, need to have access to clear and concise financial statements that provide a true and fair view of the organization's financial health. This requires a commitment to ethical practices and a willingness to disclose any potential risks or uncertainties.
